

BOE and Superintendent Retreat

Friday, Sept. 25 – Sat. Sept. 26

Begins at 6pm

Description

Former U.S. Secretary of Education, Dr. Rod R. Paige will be a featured speaker at the PTHS District 209 Board of Education and Superintendent's retreat. Dr. Paige is the nation's first African American Secretary of Education. He served under President George Bush and spearheaded implementation of the historic No Child Left Behind Act.

Dr. Paige is a proven leader with a knack for building inclusive leadership teams and educational platforms that improve academic success in urban settings. During the retreat, he will discuss the value of having a strong board/superintendent relationship.

“Our students, parents and board members deserve the best and that's exactly what Dr. Paige delivers,” says PTHS District 209 Superintendent Dr. James Henderson. “Dr. Paige is a highly respected force in educational settings. He brings a wealth of knowledge that will re-energize our team and move us forward, with one goal, toward the academic excellence we are focused on achieving. This is an exciting time and we are looking forward to his presentation and involvement in our retreat.”

The PTHSD209 retreat will allow the Board of Education and the superintendent to build relationships, strengthen communication, establish targeted goals and develop strategies aimed at improving outcomes for students.

Former U.S. Secretary of Education

Dr. Rod Paige

A proven leader with a knack for building inclusive leadership teams and educational platforms that improve academic success in urban communities will be a featured guest at the District's first Board retreat of 2020 and will speak on the value of having a strong board/superintendent relationship.

September 25 & 26

